“ I just learned today of Mae's death and was saddened to hear it. She was a wonderful, beautiful person, with a beautiful smile, and someone who was always nice to me while I was attending First Assembly. I know my mom loved her. I bet Mom was so happy to see Mae walking into Heaven, and I know Mae was thrilled to see Harold, Larry, Mindi and the rest of your family. I'm just sorry for you, Pam, and your family at your loss, because I know what you're going through right now. But it won't be long until you are reunited with your mom, forever and ever, and I with mine. You're in my prayers. Please accept my deepest condolences.
