“ Janice and William I just heard about you losing Amber, and I am so sorry for your loss. Amber was such a lovely girl. She was such a sweetheart daughter! I remember all the fun times we had with Timmy and Amber and Wes and Grant And Justin and others that you William and grandpa and Granny Glass watched so carefully for us! Grant and Wes loves to come to your house because of Tim and Amber! Amber played and helped you take care of them! My boys loved grandpa and granny Glass so much! I shall never forget Amber and Timmy and Janice I shall never forget the love that you William

Granny and grandpa showed my family! My heart is breaking for you and William, Tim,Irene and Teresa at this time! Amber was such a shining light and always had smile on her face! I am sure all her children at her day care loved her so much! Amber has new wings now and is with her Grandpa singing in Heavens choir! I am sure Jesus welcomed her with HIS arms wide open! Love you guys and I will be praying that God wraps His Loving arms around you both! William, Grant still has the small caterpillar you gave him for his birthday when he was coming to your house! Prayers for Amber's children that God will comfort them as only He can! Love and prayers Wanda Stewart
