“ *Ann Dean (I called her Annie) was a lovely and classy lady. I met Annie when I began my employment with JCP in 2002. She always treated me with the utmost of respect, and I had a tremendous amount of respect for her. She, along with Pauline Cluff (I call her Paulina) and the late Ina Miller, were long term associates who welcomed me into their world and became my dear friends as we worked closely together on a somewhat daily basis. We, also, had a lot of fun and laughter along the way! It was evident how very much Annie loved her family. I pray for God's Blessings upon each and every family member, as well as friends, as we reflect on our personal relationships with Annie and the special way in which she touched our lives.
