

Anna Bell Dickerson

October 26, 1933 - August 8, 2014

Anna Bell Dickerson, 80, longtime resident of Muskogee, Oklahoma passed away early Friday, August 8, 2014 in Muskogee. Anna was born October 26, 1933, in Crawford County, Arkansas, to Adam and Annis May (Pergeson) Russell. She grew up and attended public schools and completed her education. Anna was a devoted Christian and servant to her Lord. After her sons were born, she became a licensed Minister in 1970 for the Church Of God Of Prophecy where she pastored churches in Texas and Oklahoma. She worked in many phases of the Church, from Evangelist Missionary Leader, Youth Leader and being a Pastor. She touched many lives in the churches she served and retired in 2011 from the Church of God of Prophecy. Anna worked very hard for the Lord and at raising her family. She was very proud of her three sons and always made special time to be with them. Her motto was always: Jesus first, others second; and self last.

Anna was preceded in death by her son, Steven; her parents; her grandparents; three sisters; and six brothers.

She is survived by her sons, Don Dickerson Jr and wife Cindee of Muskogee, Jim Dickerson and wife Judy of Spring Hope, NC; sister, Alpha Young and husband Mac; grandchildren, Jimbo, Jon, Tricia, Dawnetta, Cliff, and Michelle; twelve great grandchildren; two great great grandchildren; and many other close relative, and many friends whom she loved very much.

The family wishes to acknowledge the love, support, and kindness shown to Anna by Med Corps and Med Corps Plus.

A memorial service celebrating Anna's life will be 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, August 13, 2014 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Clay Frost officiating. Honorary pallbearers will be Uiva Tubbs, Kay Joice, Van and Bernice Barkley, John and Charlotte Orman, and Rev. Larry Brown.
