“ Mom, sometimes you could be a handful but you had a kind heart and loved your family and friends and they loved you. Thanks for all your love and hard work so that Mike and I did not want for anything and that we followed the right path in life. I love you and am going to miss you. Your grateful son, Bill

“ I clearly recall memories of my Grandma Kelly. The mouthwatering smell of German cooking wafting through her home, Star Trek VHS tapes piled high on the bookshelves in her living room, birthday cards with a crisp 5-dollar bill arriving as a kid, the way she said "hm" when I told her something I thought was interesting (even if she didn't understand), games of Skip-Bo around her kitchen table, shouting into the phone to talk to her but never really having a problem communicating, spending a wonderful family reunion with her in Vegas, and her big smiles, boisterous laughs, and endless warm hugs. Thanks for the happy memories, Grandma!

“ Relli and Mother shared the same birthday, July 28, which always made her special to us. Both also were native German speakers so the tie between her son Bill and my sister Rosemarie with Mother and us was a more unique, special one.
