“ Austin, growing up with a friend like you was so fun. You were so full of life and your smile was contageous. I remember when you and Jordan would skate over to my house and hang out in the street and try to teach me to skateboard ha. I remember when you got 22 inch rims on your first car and drove straight to my house; you were so excited! I remember sitting in Mrs. Salmon's class and you begging me to do your homework for you. I remember eating lunch together everyday our junior year of high school, and me and kyli going up to your dad's gym so you could be our "personal trainer" haha. I remember our long talks...you were always there. What I would give for one more of those talks. For anyone that knew you well, knew what a huge heart you had. You were the best with little kids, and you would do anything for those you cared about. You were my friend and even my boyfriend many moons ago and you will always be in my heart. I love you.. and i miss you so much. You're a beautiful angel now, and I cannot wait to see you again. Love always and forever,
