

Avanel Eubanks Urmston

May 5, 1926 - June 26, 2018

Avanel “Abby” Eubanks Urmston, 92, of Muskogee, Oklahoma passed away Tuesday, June 26, 2018 in Muskogee. She was born May 5, 1926 in Stuart, Oklahoma to James Henry Eubanks and Florence Odessa Bell Eubanks. Abby attended public schools and graduated from Stuart High School with the Class of 1943.

She married Robert M. Urmston in 1948. They shared many years of life and marriage together.

Abby was a people person and enjoyed working for Safeway Grocery. Throughout her 43 years of service, she worked at stores in McAlester, Okmulgee, Wagoner, and Muskogee. She retired in 1969.

After her retirement, Abby went on several cruises and bus trips, traveling to Australia, Hawaii, Bermuda, and Alaska.

She will always be remembered as a wonderful, unique and great person who enjoyed spending several years at her property on Lake Eufaula. She had a “green thumb” and always enjoyed working in her flower beds and watching the wildlife.

She was a member of the Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Florence Eubanks; son, Col. John B. Urmston; husband, Robert M. Urmston; brother, Flavius Eubanks; and sister, Dottie Kate Coleman.

Abby is survived by her three grandchildren, Jennifer Lowe, David Urmston, and Lisa Perry; 5 great-grandchildren, Benjamin Lowe, Grant, Max, and Reid

Perry, and Sydney Urmston; daughter-in-law, Carol Urmston, all of North Carolina; brother, Paschall Eubanks and wife Iline, of Muskogee; along with many nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Memorial services are planned for a later date.
