

Barbara Sue Curtsinger

June 23, 1950 - December 14, 2025

Barbara Sue Curtsinger, lovingly known as “Barb,” of Muskogee, Oklahoma, passed away on December 14, 2025, surrounded by those who loved her deeply. She was born on June 23, 1950, in Walters, Oklahoma, to Kenneth Lee White and Margaret Lou Petty White.

Barbara spent most of her life in Muskogee, where she built lasting relationships and a life centered on family. She graduated from Walters High School in 1968 and worked many years as a salesperson, including time with Nelson’s and The Home Store. Most recently, she was employed with Muskogee Public Schools in the Transportation Department.

Barbara had a deep love for her family and treasured time spent with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She especially loved being Nana and found immense joy in attending family gatherings. She also loved her dogs, horses, and spending time outdoors. Barbara was a woman of faith and attended New Hope Assembly in Muskogee.

She is survived by her son, Jeff Curtsinger of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; her daughter, Gina Curtsinger Kelley of Muskogee, Oklahoma; and her grandchildren Justin Kelley and wife Jayden of Tahlequah, Oklahoma, Reagan Hebb and husband Nathan of Stratford, Oklahoma, Coleman Curtsinger and wife Mariah of Wichita, Kansas, and Sidney Ryden and husband Ethan of San Antonio, Texas; her great-grandchildren Cash Kelley of Tahlequah, Skyler Walker of Fort Gibson, Kynleigh Hebb, Kaidence Hebb, Cooper Hebb, and Ruger Hebb, all of Stratford, Oklahoma; and special niece Keri Dawn White of Walter, Oklahoma.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, Kenneth Lee White and Margaret Lou Petty White, both of Walters, Oklahoma, as well as her brothers Kenny Lee White and Larry Don White.

Barbara Sue Curtsinger will be remembered for her love of family, her warm heart, and the pride she had in each generation of her family. Her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched.

Honoring Barbara's wishes, there will not be any service scheduled. Family will have a private celebration of life over the holidays.
