

Betty Lou Ford

August 30, 1936 - January 25, 2023

Betty Lou (Wyatt) Ford

Betty Ford passed away peacefully on January 25, 2023 in Muskogee, Oklahoma, at age 86.

She was born on August 30, 1936, at Brewer's Bend, Oklahoma to Charley Liston Wyatt and Earle (Davis) Wyatt, later Hammons.

Betty went to school at the one room schoolhouse at Buckhorn and then on to Webbers Falls High School and was a longtime resident of McLain, Oklahoma, where she raised her family.

Betty accepted the Lord as a young girl and was baptized (at Otis Evans pond in Buckhorn) and began her service in church as song leader. Singing was her gift that she joyfully shared.

She sang at countless church services, weddings, funerals and revivals throughout her life, where her beautiful voice inspired many congregations and helped lead people to God.

Bible study and teaching Sunday School were also a passion for Betty. She enjoyed learning all she could and bringing knowledge of the scriptures to her classes.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband R.L. Ford, daughter Deborah Charlene, sister Sue Nell Dornan and husband Charles, sister Mary Jean Webster and husband Johnny, sister Alice Geiger and husband Richard, sister Bonnie Bray, and father of her children Gene Herriman.

Betty is survived by her loving family, son Wayne Herriman and wife Patty of Muskogee, Ronald (Boone) Herriman of McLain, son Steven Herriman and his wife Lea Ann of Muskogee, daughter Gwyneth Morris and her husband Jim of McLain, son Michael Herriman of Tulsa, son Larry Herriman of Tulsa, brother Bobbie Hammons and his wife Dianna of Muskogee, 9 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Family will greet friends 2PM-4PM, Sunday, January 29, 2023 at Cornerstone Funeral Home. Viewing will be Sunday, January 29, 2023 1PM-5PM at Cornerstone Funeral Home.

A celebration of Betty's life will be 2PM, Monday, January 30, 2023 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Ray Phillips officiating. Due to weather, a private family interment will follow at McLain Cemetery with her grandsons serving as pallbearers.
