

Betty Maxine Simmons

December 21, 1931 - October 5, 2010

Betty Maxine Simmons, 78, Muskogee, died Tuesday, October 5, 2010 at a local nursing care center. Betty was born December 21, 1931 to Jeff L. Denton and Annie (Voss) Denton in Coweta, OK. She enjoyed growing up in Coweta and Wagoner. She worked at a Wagoner drug store as a soda jerk for .25 cents an hour and graduated Wagoner High School in 1949. She worked for Gaines Butane on N. York in Muskogee for several years. Maxine also worked at 1st National Bank and Muskogee Country Club Pro Shop. She met and married Clardie Arlie White on Aug. 24, 1951 in Broken Arrow. C.A. White attended OSU where he and Maxine lived before he joined the Army as a helicopter pilot during which time they were stationed at bases in Texas, Georgia and Fort Chaffee, AR, where their daughter Vickie Ann White (Surry) was born on Jan. 4, 1954. Maxine enjoyed photography including a dark room. She also became an avid golfer and accomplished artist with paintings across the US. She remarried to George R Simmons on May 23, 1964 and liked to water ski and snow ski. She also enjoyed knitting, crochet and gardening. She was a strong believer in God and faith. Maxine was a beautiful, energetic, determined woman and will be dearly missed. She is survived by her loving daughter. No services scheduled at this time.

Tribute Wall

“ Betty Maxine Simmons

October 23, 2023 at 09:38 AM