I see this picture and I want to cry. I worked with Bob at Andy's car lot back in the 80's. Gosh that seems so long ago. He was the rarest bright light I ever met. He always smiled and when he talked to you he always made you feel like you were the only person on the planet. And he adored his wife. I only met Patsy one time at a Christmas party held at the car lot and I can see why. I remember him with such fondness and think of him often. I was at his service, sitting in the back so I could feel free to express my sorrow without disturbing anyone else. And express it I did. To this day I think about him and the positive attitude he shared with anyone who came into his sphere. I miss him.

Sonny, this is Mari. I worked for Andy in the detail dept. with David Jurkavich and then Curtis. (probably spelled David's last name wrong). Anyway, I was going to post my feelings about Bob but you took the words right out of my mouth. I would have posted to this site earlier but I only just found it. I loved Bob. I never saw the man where he wasn't smiling. Well, maybe when it came to the Scissortails pooping on all the cars, lol... And man, could he give a haircut.

“ Bobby was a true gentleman and family man in every sense of the word. I first met Bobby in 1992 and I marveled at all of the wonderful stories he would tell about his family and most of all, his wife. I loved how his eyes would sparkle when he would talk about Patsy.....I loved hearing the stories of their life together and he certainly could tell a story better than anyone I have ever had the pleasure of knowing! The years that I was fortunate enough to work with Bob were some of the greatest of my life....back when the car business was fun and you were treated with respect!! My thoughts and prayers are with Patsy, the children and grandchildren as they deal with their loss..... You know, everyone that knew Bob has suffered a tremendous loss.....Rest in peace dear friend.....

“ My Uncle Bob has always been in mine and my brother's lives as a huge part of our best memories! My parents had told me that my nickname "Sweet" was what Uncle Bob dubbed me as a little girl. He always had a smile on his face and when I was troubled he would say, "Well now Sweet, it's only a thang....." In other words, don't worry about it, it will pass. I visited him in Saint Francis and he talked about his grandchildren and would wipe tears... He was one that TRULY LOVED FAMILY! He is forever in my BEST memories!
