“ Thinking of Aunt Brenda, my mother Joyce, and Aunt Barbara holding hands in heaven with Nanny literally keeps me alive. There was no stronger love from one family that I have ever witnessed. The Angels have a strong group addition and hopefully I will see them again.

Love and condolences, Barry Payne and family.

Brenda was such a kind and loving soul and it was my joy to serve as her priest at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, in Rogers, Arkansas.. And YES! ...that is me kissing her at the door of the Church following Worship. I proudly admit! What a privilege and joy to have known her. May dear Brenda rest in holy peace and rise to be in Heaven with all her loved one's who have gone before. What a joyful reunion that will be. Father Allen Bates
