“ Steve was a great guy. We learned a lot from each other over the years in dealing with antique and collectibles. The first time I met him was in Brownwood Tx he was a vendor at the rattle snake show. He gave me a handful of 1930's Dr Pepper bottle caps. Several years later I reconnected with him at Canton flea market. We became good friends and would travel and do show together. He will be greatly missed I considered him one of my best friends.
