“ Dear Mrs. Arnold, Debby, Mike, and Carla, Our deepest sympathy to you all. I have such warm memories of growing up on Monta Place and remembering what a kind, sweet man your dad was. I remember how your dad and our dad would stand in our front yard and talk almost every night in the summer. They would also stand around watching for storms and waiting for a tornado to come along and blow us away...lol. We were blessed to grow up in our neighborhood with such wonderful friends and neighbors like you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. God bless, Lisa Moore Hurd, Dorothy Moore, and Toby Moore

“ *I have great memories of Carlee and all of you growing up at Eastern Heights.
One memory I have of Mike,( if memory serves me right) is of a overnight fishing trip to Sam Finleys dock and you falling in the ice cold water. I don't remember who pulled you out but, I bet it was your dad if he was there.
My Thoughts and Prayers are with all of you in this time of loss.*
