“ I will cherish memories of her smile and sweet spirit of acceptance. She taught my children in school and later she baked a special batch of peanut butter cookies for Brently when he and Amy married. She was a very special courageous woman that put family above all things. She always had a kind word and valuable advice for those in need. She adored Jaxson and Darcy and we are all richer for having had her in our lives. My thoughts and condolences to all her loving family left to mourn her. Be comforted in the knowledge that she loved hers as they loved her.
