“ Cathi was a close friend for many years. My family spent many hours with her family. Cathi was gorgeous physically and spiritually. She and Steve were a great team and an inspiration to others. My sympathy goes out to Steve, Shawn, Jaime, and Missy. I will always have love in my heart for the Scherer family.

“ Cathi was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved gardening projects, and I feel honored to have been a recipient of her canned cherries! They made the best cherry pie I have ever tasted!! She was a fountain of information about gardening and cooking. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Prayers and sympathy to all of you on the loss of this beautiful lady. I have such precious memories of being your neighbor. What fun she and I had....standing at our fence laughing and talking....how she would call me to warn me Marion was "trimming the shrubs" as she knew he tended to cut them to the ground; how they loved to play tricks on each other. Eleven years ago the doorbell rang and when I opened it, here was this little puppy looking up at me - Cathi was hiding - she knew we needed this dog and now every time I look at my Katie, I think of her. Cathi has and will continue to live in my heart forever.
