“ Uncle Charles was the most wonderful man in my eyes. He was a loving, caring and compassionate person, he gave everything his best. So considerate and sensitive to others feelings, and he knew exactly what to say to you. He was a God man, inside and out. Radiant with the Lord's presence and believing God's best for all. He was also a family man and showed it. I know heaven is a beautiful place, but much more now. I know you will greet Aunt Blanch, Momma, Aunt Pearl, Grandma and Grandpa, your siblings and so many, many more. I just can imagine. I so love you Uncle, I so thank you for every word of encouragement and love you have shown me and the family. Thank you for being my Daddy's Twin.....Love You, til we meet again. Diane

“ If you know these Capps boys you know that they are larger than life! God, Family, Friends, in that order. Laughter, positivity, encouragement, peace, these are that attributes that Uncle Charles possessed, when you were with him you felt everyone of those. You never had to guess where you stood with him, as with most Capps folks, he never failed to say "I love you", well, Uncle Charles, I sure love you, will miss the dickens outta ya, but will see you again.
