

Charles David "Charlie" Humphrey

July 20, 1944 - October 28, 2025

Charles "Charlie" David Humphrey, age 81, a long-time resident of Wagoner, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 28, 2025, surrounded by his loving family.

Charlie was born on July 20, 1944, in Muskogee, Oklahoma, to Charles Arno and Rosie Lea (Hall) Humphrey. He grew up in Muskogee, where he attended public schools and graduated from Muskogee Central High School as part of the Class of 1962.

On October 9, 1987, Charlie married the love of his life, Carla A. Bloodgood, in Muskogee. Together, they shared more than 38 wonderful years of marriage, building a life filled with laughter, love, and devotion to family and friends.

Charlie began his working career at Fansteel Metals and Muskogee Iron Works, later retiring from Unarco in 2007. He was known for his dedication and strong work ethic. In addition to his primary career, Charlie also enjoyed working as an electrician and in the construction industry, always eager to lend a helping hand or solve any problem that came his way.

Charlie was a man of many interests and talents. He found joy in golfing, fishing, bowling, and square dancing. His love for these activities was matched only by his enthusiasm for spending time with family and friends.

Charlie was also a devoted member of Cornerstone Church in Wagoner, where he loved attending services and serving his community.

Charlie will be remembered for his kindness, generosity, and unwavering faith.

His legacy lives on in the lives he touched, the family he cherished, and the community he served. Charlie's spirit will continue to inspire all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Rosie Lea Humphrey; and his daughter, Tresea Fendlason.

Charlie is survived by his loving wife, Carla of the home; children, Brad Humphrey of Texas, Brent Humphrey and wife Tara of Louisiana, Bob Atchley and wife Shaunna of Coweta, John Newman and wife Cindy of Oktaha; brother, Terry Humphrey and wife Arlene of Muskogee; brother-in-law, Charles Bloodgood and wife Christy of Illinois; son-in-law, Victor Fendlason of Wagoner; grandchildren, Amelia Fendlason, Gentry Lane and husband Kyle, Mikayla Hill and husband Brandon, Austin Humphrey, Zack Humphrey and wife Laken, Lexy Parker and husband Jesse, Taylor Clements and husband John, Bailey Atchley, Alexandra Higeons and husband Brad, Courtney Christie and husband Robert, Alyssa Evans and husband Zack, and Morgan Sager and husband Tristan; along with many many great-grandchildren, other family members, and a large host of friends.

Charlie's life will be celebrated at 1PM, Monday, November 3, 2025 at Cornerstone Church, 102 S Polk Ave, Wagoner, OK., with Pastor Darin Beller officiating.
