“ Charles was a wonderful brother. He was also a great husband, father, provider and patriot. He volunteered to serve his country and fought bravely with his fellow Marines in Vietnam. He showed the toughness that he earned as a Marine even as he fought his final battle with illness. He also had an immense spirit and he gave comfort and guidance to us all through his great faith in God and Savior. He will be sorely missed by family, friends, and everyone he touched in life. I couldn't be prouder to say that he is and always will be my brother.

Carol, I just learned of Charlie's death. I am so sorry for you. I know your heart must be breaking. May God put his arms around you and give you peace that passes understanding. Carolyn and Dennis Hill
