“ Mr. Joe Baucom was one of the sweetest, most hard working man that I knew and loved Jesus. It was a pleasure and an honor to serve Christ with this wonderful man. Joe loved serving and fixing things as he went along. So honored to serve with him at Central Baptist and again at Oldham Memorial. Hard work was no stranger to him, something needed done he was the first to jump on board and get it done. Most of all I appreciate him for always making sure others were included and shown love. I will miss you, kind sir... Until we meet again... Enjoy heaven. See you soon!
