“ I'm so sad your gone Uncle Charlie a great loving man not one time that I contacted you did you ever ignore me. What's hard for me is that I found your obituary and within and before your death I was literally looking for you texting your number etc . May God be with your immediate family my condolences I would have came to say goodbye if only I would have known. Love you always and forever. I know you are with granny and papa your sisters and brothers. God needed another angel. Give them all my love let them know I miss them 📖 🌹 🌸
