“ I don't even know where to begin. We have so many great memories. From my very first flight that we took to California where I balled like a baby because I thought we were going to crash, to New York where we almost missed our flight, to many nights going to the club and being the best room mate and co worker I ever had!! You taught me a lot. I am so blessed to have had you as my best friend. I will see you again one day. Love you!

“ The instant Christine and I met as neighbors 11 yrs ago, there was a deep connection. Once she moved to Florida we stayed close, and we felt like no time passed between our conversations. She was funny, loving, smart, and I loved her with all my heart. I will miss you so much, my dear friend. Dayna Henson

“ On 6/8/16 the world lost a beautiful soul. Christine was just as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. She always tried to help anyone she could no matter how big or small the problem she would give until she couldn't give anymore. Not just with people but with animals too. Christine was the sister I never had. We loved each other unconditionally, just as siblings do. No matter how much time passed between our conversations it was like coming home, we could pick up right where we left off. She will forever be in my heart and live in my memories. She was my best friend through all the good times and the bad times. She always knew what to say to encourage you and make you feel better and then eventually make you laugh. I will miss her everyday.
