“ Sending my thoughts & prayers to the family at this sad time. Chris was one of a kind & I was honored to be his friend. He was just the best. He would always make you smile & brightened everyone's day. Even in hard times that were difficult to deal with. He was always there for me. I loved him & my family did too. No matter where you went he was always positive & so much fun to be with. He was so motivating always, loved to garden & paint. His love of cooking was always wonderful...an old soul at heart. He appreciated the finer things. Love & concern for his family was always a topic of conversation & Mr. Hoodie of course! He took pride in his family heritage. A true gentleman, very kind. He was a rare gem for sure & I'll be hoping to see him again someday when the time comes we'll have a real happy reunion for sure at the big party!

“ I have been looking for Chris for years, I never imagined this is how I would have found him. My heart is broken. Even though it has been years since I had seen him, I never forgot him. He was a giant ball of life, a force beyond control. His laugh was magic. He will be missed but never forgotten. <3

Chris and I may not have parted on the best of terms, but he was still a unique, creative and funny person. I didn't think I'd find out about him like this either, Jenn. Shocked and saddened. He was my closest friend for over 17 years.

I still remember all of us hanging at your house.

“ I'm so saddened to hear of Chris' death. Though we never reconnected after my family moved away from CA, in High School he was one of very few friends I ever had. My thoughts are with his family.

“ To my sweet cousin Chris...we are the only family to live near each other in Oklahoma in the past few years. I am glad this was able to bring us closer together. I adored you, and your kind ways. Always the life of the party, a good dancer and pop trivia expert. You were a delightful and sensitive child. My children will miss you forever. Tracy was only 2 months apart in age, sharing so many childhood memories, Charles, who laughs every time he thinks of your funny ways, and Tira who recently reached out to you when she visited Oklahoma, having a nice visit.. All the California Cartridges are deeply saddened by you death, and I find it unimaginable that you are gone
