“ I'm so sad to hear of Chris passing and sorry for your loss. I worked with him several years and looked forward to work when I knew he'd be there. He was such a bright spot in the day. Chris always had some kind of antics going on. I embarked on several "adventures " with him. He was so like a mischievous little boy. I really loved him a lot. He has/had the sweetest soul and heart. So kind. I lost contact with him over the years but thought of him so often. Each time I did, it made me remember and smile. Christopher, you touched so many of us. I miss you, I love you. I know you are at peace and in a wonderful place with the sun warming your face. rest in peace sweetheart, your friend Jean

“ So sorry for your loss. I went to school and rode the bus with Christopher. He was a few years younger than me but was always a good kid on the bus. Connie, my Dad sends his condolences to you and your family.

“ I had the privilege to work with Christopher (he always corrected me when I called him Chris) and we was a wonderful person and friend. Sadly I lost contact with him but we shared a lot of laughs and adventures together. He had the greatest smile and I can still hear his laugh. He was quick to help if you needed him and was the first one to be there to lend a shoulder. Christopher was a wonderful person, Rest in Peace my friend.

*“ Many memories come to mind of Christopher...but what I think of most was his laugh. He would laugh so hard that sound wouldn't even come out sometimes, which made us laugh even harder.
Ellen, Connie and Shawn: I know that the sorrow you are feeling can, at sometimes, be overwhelming. Just know that there are a lot of people praying hard for your peace and comfort and strength.
Love and prayers from Angela Pickard Swaringim and Kaye Pickard Kilgore.*

“ I remember that cute sweet little boy growing up in school. He was always so nice sweet and polite. You couldn't be around him for a moment without smiling. He always had a story to tell and a contagious laugh. I remember how proud Ellen was when he was hired at American Airlines. He always brightened my mother's day. (She was one of his teachers at Oktaha). He was/is loved by many and will be truly missed. I am sad to hear of his passing but smile when I think he may be entertaining mom right now with one of his magnificent stories told only the way he could tell it. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Robbie Brassfield Sterling

“ I'm proud to say I knew you! What a wonderful soul I saw in you! Even in times when there were struggles, you were resilient and always found a way.

Though not by blood, we were Brothers despite when own brothers weren't! I will forever miss the many laughs, I'll always remember your funny antics and impulsive schemes. Even when you got under my skin it was never so long before I was ready to entertain another new adventure together .

*Teasing you was more fun In that moment than almost anything!
Now we have to learn how to go on without you in our lives and let you live through our memories.*

So long, my friend!
