I was made aware of Christopher's death by my youngest daughter, Casey Carter, who has not only been horribly saddened by the loss of Christopher but is also deeply worried about his family, and friends, upon hearing the tragic news of his passing. He had so much life yet to live.

I am sorry that any of you have to endure this pain of grieving. It is obvious from looking at these lovely pictures that Christopher was, not only a very handsome young man, but also appears to have enjoyed having fun with his family & friends, and spending time with you, too.

I pray that each of you find peace and the ability to live on with great memories in your heart, very soon.

There is a scripture that has always brought me peace, when I have lost someone that I love. Perhaps this will help you too.

ROMANS 14:8

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

So, according to "The Holy Bible", Christopher is in Heaven, with Jesus because he belongs to God. It makes perfect sense to me. Of course, we all would prefer that he was still here but if it has to be, as it is, this scripture is good to know.

May God keep Satan far from all of us so that we do not leave this world before our time.

May God walk beside each of you for the rest of your lives. Then you, too, will be with Jesus and with Christopher again. What a glorious reunion that will be!

With all due respect & with my heartfelt condolences,
