

Clayton Lee Bailey

September 22, 1990 - July 31, 2025

Clayton Lee Bailey, age 34 of Muskogee, passed away at his home on July 31, 2025.

After 34 years on this earth things have come to a finale. I have loved hard, enjoyed life and all it had to offer. In a blink of an eye it changed and now I sit at the feet of Jesus.

I have been blessed to live my final years in my comfortable suburban home. I am joining my grandmother, Mary Blevins; grandfather, Edward Seber; grandmother, Claudine Bailey; grandfather, Elvin L Bailey; aunt, Sandy Seber Sisco; and cousins, Denny, Usti, and Clint in Heaven.

I leave on earth my mother, Judy Seber-Vann; father, David L Bailey; brother, Quinn Hunter and his wife Lindsey Hunter; niece Addison Hunter; and nephew, Landon Hunter.

Clayton loved the Lord. He had a magnetic personality with warmth, and a great sense of humor that made others feel comfortable around him. He loved his friends and family dearly.

Clayton was born in Tahlequah, OK, and raised in Wann, OK. He attended Oklahoma Union School through the 11th grade and graduated from Liberty

High School in 2009. He later acquired an associate's degree from the College of the Muscogee Nation. Clayton worked at The Office of Public Gaming where he was proud to serve the Creek Nation and protect the assets of the tribe. Clayton joined the United States Army and he took pride in serving his country and being a veteran.

Clayton loved the Lord and enjoyed and felt blessed in this beautiful area of Oklahoma, He enjoyed fast cars, listening to music, and making music with his friends, He loved to keep fit and lived a healthy lifestyle. Some of his hobbies included flying his drone, racing and practicing driving his RC cars. He loved sports and especially basketball! He was always up for a game of hoops. His pride and joy was his Red SS Chevy Camaro, but mostly he enjoyed fellowship with his family and friends.

We are broken-hearted that you left us so young. Clayton also leaves behind his aunts and uncles, John Seber and wife Marilyn Seber, Alice Seber Beach and husband Charles Beach, Lori Mullican, Lynn Bailey and wife Judy Bailey, Judith Ann Bailey Woods and husband Mike Woods, Mary Ellen Bailey Johnson and husband Walley, Donna Bailey Hoffman and husband Joe; cousins, Marnie Sherril, Stoney Sisco, Matt Mullican, Loy Beach, Jennifer Mullican, Wren Beach, James Mullican, Joseph Sherril, Kiyah Sisco-DeShazer and numerous other family members and friends.

Clayton's life will be celebrated at 10:30AM, Friday, August 8, 2025 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Richard Wildcat officiating. Interment will follow at Greenhill Cemetery with Quinn Hunter, Landon Hunter, Stoney Sisco, Matt Mullican, Loy Beach, and James Mullican serving as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers will be John Seber, Steven Seber, Charles Beach, Joseph Sherril, and Cody Williams.

“ Clayton Lee Bailey, your shining light was extinguished on July 31, 2025, but your radiant spirit remains. I couldn't imagine the pain you went through today; I couldn't imagine how scared you must have been. I vividly recall the day our paths converged, and over the years, through life's darkest moments, you stood by me, a beacon of hope. Your unwavering support after I lost my mother, and your steadfast presence when I was shot in 2017, inspired me to persevere. As roommates, friends, best friends, and brothers, our bond grew stronger with each passing day. Though we've had our share of disagreements, our friendship remained unshakeable. I'll always cherish the memories of our late-night conversations, our adventures at the shooting range, and the countless times you've been there for me, including the time you rescued me in Arkansas. Your selflessness and loyalty are a testament to the transformative power of true friendship. As I navigate life's journey, I'm reminded that the older I get, the fewer friends I have, but the ones I hold dear, like you, Clayton, are a precious gift. Your relationship with God is remarkable; I know you led many people to Jesus Christ. Your memory will continue to inspire me to live life with purpose and passion. Until we meet again in Valhalla, dear brother, may your spirit soar. Fly High! Sending my condolences to the family.

Psalm 23: 'The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.'
