“ Uncle Clip was the real deal. His love for Judy paved (pun intended) the way for his children to love unconditionally. Working hard and being kind to others is something we all should embrace - Clip LIVED this every day! We have fond memories of trips to Oklahoma to visit in one of my dads' Buicks. Clip and my dad would drink beer and laugh while Judy made homemade donuts.

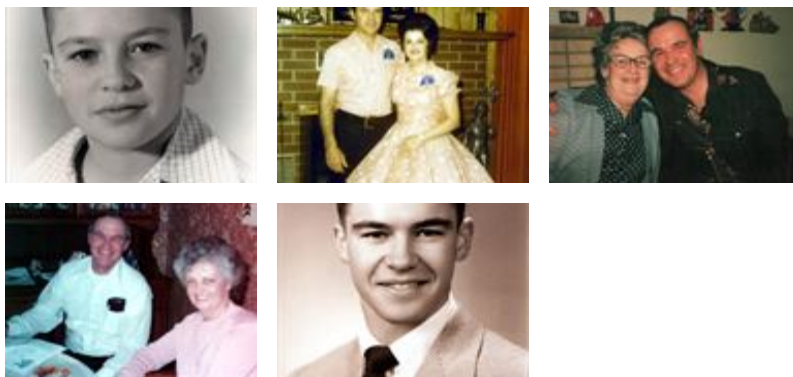

May the Lord hold all of you extra tight right now as you remember, celebrate, hurt and rejoice in the belief that Clip is free of pain and with Judy now - maybe even sharing a beer and a laugh with my dad. "She's a hot one Rog!"

Much love and our deepest condolences. Lisa (Lang) Stingley, Connie Lang (sister in law), Roger & Connie Lang
