“ C. R. quickly became a favorite of mine while working with Operation Round Up board through East Central Electric. C.R. was very loyal, hard working, thoughtful, caring person whom I found to help volunteer for a lot of organizations and events in his area. Always lending a hand, loved his church, loved life, always found a way to make me laugh. Truly missed, it was an honor to meet his wife Ellen, and pray for her health, comfort and strength. Great people.
