“Connie and my late husband, Larry, were great buddies at church. I loved her beautiful smile and her great sense of humor. When Larry had to miss a service due to his health, she would always greet me with, "How's my boyfriend?" I know she and Art and Jason and Larry and many other dear ones are worshipping Jesus together for eternity!”

“ Such a privilege to share journeys which be began in the 1980’s when I first met Connie. her spouse and son, Jason. I recall the my “early walk by faith...” ignited by Connie’s spiritual and physical stamina. Let me tell you about Connie! Her Years of faithful service at Hope Lutheran Church, included serving on the altar guild, the Lutheran women’s ministry, adult Bible school, youth and vacation bible school worker at Hope Lutheran Church. Art and Connie were very active in multiple Connie was artistic with crafts and cards. Gifted as a master cook, we loved traveling from house to house during Christmas as she sang, feed and created laughter. Adult Bible classes were peppered. I did not remember much about her work at Tinker Air Force base. I do remember Connie mastery of clothing style and fashion. I did enjoys hours going junking, and enjoying life and laughter in games inside and outside the walls of church attendance. What a wonderful living history legacy: a woman who enlisted in the Air Force, worked at Tinker Air Base, moved out of state, returned to Oklahoma to be employed until her retirement from Southwestern Bell. Boulevard Church servant in back pack, and always adding a special flavor in Gary Miller adult Bible classes. Her attention to detail was excellent in all Connie touched, always serving others first. There is no one like Connie. who we honor remembering how well Connie served others...first!! Connie would tell you her opinion and laugh, cry, embrace you and love on you.
