“ Dale was my step-father for nearly 40 years. As an adult he became my friend as well. We spent many mornings discussing the Bible and our faith and we helped each other to dig into the word and grow spiritually. I was fortunate to have been a witness to his transformation from rebel to servant of Christ. I'm grateful to have experienced that type of relationship. His love and support enabled me to grow as a person while feeling secure in knowing if I faltered, he'd be there to help me up. I know his celebration is Heaven is great as He stepped into his great reward. Until we meet again, save a place for me ❤️

“ I did not know Dale very long and very well but in the few moments we got acquainted, he impressed me with some insight to his life. The one year and a half that we lived at Vann Lake BC, we got to rekindle the relationship with the Lord by virtue of Brother Dale opening the church house to us. I faked the idea that I was a handyman and he believed everything thing I said. Although he did not want me to touch the pile of hardened cement in the women's restroom, I took it upon myself to demolish it and in the end he was very pleased. He was also glad that we got to meet in this spiritual journey in the way of the old fashioned children of God. We left him in a saddened state when we moved back to the west. But the journeys still go on and we always give praise, thanks, and acknowledgement for that short time on earth. I was happy to hear that he passed on his birthday and on the day representing the resurrection from death so God is still reminding us of this fantastic spiritual journey. We miss him of course but he awaits us in the place of no suffering and perpetual peace. So now he is resting, running, and living in peace and free from this tattered tent and is going to have his own mansion, a new house that is incorruptible as the Corinthians were told, AMEN... from brother Gil and family

“ I have known Brother Dale for many, many, many years and during the early years we did some crazy and foolish things, but I want to remember the good and fun times we had. The good and fun times we had at family gatherings, at the baptisms of our children and the weddings of our children, nieces and nephews. Our fun times at church activities at Christmas, Halloween, birthday parties, baby showers, wedding showers and just having Sunday dinner after church. We would sit around and talk about old times, our families and about all the medicine we had to take to keep us going. Whenever I went to his home he would ask how I was doing, about my job and about how the family was doing. He was not only my brother-in-law, but he was my friend, a fellow veteran and I will miss him, his jokes, which were sometimes corny, but he was always trying to bring a smile to everyone he met. He was a Christian man and spread the gospel everywhere he went and he loved his family with unconditional love and lead a very good example for all of his family. I will miss him, but will smile knowing he will be bringing smiles to those he meets in heaven. Till we meet again, see you Brother Dale. Love, Joe, Jr.

“ Minister, Pastor, Lifelong Friend! From childhood to adulthood. From partying to serving God together. A great example of a life transformed into a powerful man of God. Dale and his family have prayed many prayers with us and for us. We love you, Dale, and you will be missed. We are praying for comfort that only God can give to the family.

“ Thursday night was the last time that my daddy carried on a conversation with us. He was telling us about a silly dream he had. Then said that he would like to go to church on Sunday and to not tell him no. We said, okay. Then he said, I cannot wait to see Jesus face to face and dance all over heaven. Before we left that night he prayed for us. For us, he could have prayed for anything but it was just for us. I miss him like crazy but I know that he is running all over heaven and that makes what we are going through now, worth it. I love you, daddy!
