“ I remember one summer Popa Dav took me to spaniel creek in a boat, we put the boat in the water and away we went got to the middle and he realized that he forgot to put the drain plug in so the boat was full of water. Here we are in the middle with a boat full of water, and were throw water as fast as we could till he got back to the bank.

Most of my memory with Popa Dav is spend at the creek bank. Driving dirt road and shooting guns. But the best memo are of what he taught me that I will pass on with my kids.
