

David Lloyd Nelson

August 10, 1953 - July 23, 2023

David Lloyd Nelson was born August 10, 1953 to Kenneth and Imogene Nelson. He went to Heaven on Sunday, July 23, 2023. He graduated from Sapulpa High School in 1971.

David and Joyce met in Okmulgee in 1972 and were married on August 4, 1972. They were married for 51 years. They were members of Warner First Assembly of God.

David enjoyed fishing, visiting with family and friends, and eating. He loved to build and work with wood. He could build anything, and it was always perfect. He loved home missions! He coordinated over 34 mission trips to Arizona and New Mexico to the Navajo and Apache reservations; building parsonages and churches.

Above all was his relationship with God and his family. His sense of humor was still intact up until the end. He loved his four grandchildren tremendously, but his four great-grandkids were his heart. They gave him so much joy. It would take a book to tell all the stories, laughs and blessing of God through the years. He knew what it was like to experience the goodness of God.

David is survived by his wife, Joyce; daughters, Brandy Miller and husband Jody, Christy Potts; four grandkids, J. D. Miller and wife Erika, Cheyenne Kiehl and husband Colton, Cody Potts and wife Haley, Triston Potts and fiancé Colby Ledbetter; four great-grandkids, Stetson Potts, Kacen Potts, Sawyer Miller and Wrenley Kiehl; and great-grandbaby #5 due in September; his mom, Imogene Anderson; sister, Linda Jackson and husband Ewing; brother-in-law, Mike Capps; along with many precious family members and a host of wonderful friends.

He was preceded in death by his dad, Kenneth Nelson; father-in-law, Charles Capps; mother-in-law, Blanch Capps; and niece, Tammy Shockley.

David's life will be celebrated at 2PM, Thursday, July 27, 2023 at Warner First Assembly of God Church. Interment will follow at Pope Chapel Cemetery with Jody Miller, J.D. Miller, Cody Potts, Colton Kiehl, Colby Ledbetter, and Ewing Jackson serving as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers will be Windell Stow, Jack Roach, Mike Capps, Brent Scott, Tony Labounty, Dale Johnson and Dean Shockley.
