“ My dearest David. You have been my brother n law for the past 32 years and it's just not going to be the same. You were always such a wonderful uncle to Chris and Megan and could make them mind when sometimes I was ready to pull my heart out. I'll never forget the first time I was coming to porter to have lunch with everyone and meet pat and Hugh and this city girl got lost but when I did finally make it to porter I saw this guy standing outside the Dairy Queen and asked' do you know where Doug southern lives” and how funny this was but there you were of all the people I could have run into. I'll treasure all the memories and you will never be forgotten in my mind or my heart. RiP I love you David. Your sis n law. Karen

“ I have soooo many wonderful memories with David. He was a friend, that although we didnt see each other often over the past few years, when we talked it was like we had never missed a beat. I will miss his laugh, his stupid jokes and the tight hug he always met me with. I also have to say, over the 40 yrs of our friendship I heard him use the cheesiest pick up lines of all time. I cant help but think his goal was to see how quickly I would be shaking my head more than it was to impress a pretty girl because I could always hear him laughing as I walked away trying not to laugh and spoil his game. I will miss everything about you Southern, my friend.
