

Debby Kingston Bohanon

September 1, 1951 - September 2, 2016

Debby “Nonnie” Kingston Bohanon, 65, of Tulsa, OK passed away Friday, September 2, 2016. She was born September 1, 1951 to Leroy and Lola (Eubanks) Kingston. Debby spent most of her life in Muskogee, Oklahoma and graduated from Central High School with the class of 1969. She worked in banking for over 25 years and as a bail bondsman before retiring.

Debby enjoyed doing crafts, reading, music and most of all attending activities for her grandchildren. She seldom missed a ballgame where her daughters were cheering. Debby had a gift for loving children. Her door was never locked and had an open invitation to any child who wanted to visit or needed a place to stay. She always referred to them as “Her Kids”. It is countless of how many children’s lives she touched through the years with her kindness and gentle nature. Debby always insisted on making happy memories that would live on forever. Her children and grandchildren were the light of her life, and her brother was her “Hero”.

Debby was preceded in death by her parents; a sister; special aunt, Georgia Brown; many aunts and uncles; and her daughter, Melanie Tiger.

She is survived by her son, Lance Bohanon of Muskogee, OK; daughters, Noel Bohanon and husband Jason Jones of Muskogee, OK, and Logan Bohanon of Dallas, TX; daughter-in-law, Sonya Bohanon of Wainwright, OK; brother, Phil Kingston of Tulsa, OK; two “borrowed” sons and one daughter, Jay Stroble, Jamie Rappe, Dolly Cowles Trickey; her grandchildren, Dyllon Bohanon, Gavin and Garrett Bohanon, Grant Jones, and Lindsey Garner all of Muskogee, OK; her “girls”, Shiloh, Magen, Katie, Lauren, Amber, and Julee; and many special cousins, other family members, and friends.

The family would like to thank C.I.M.A. Hospice for the special care they gave Debby. Also, they would like to give a special thank you to the Ross family and Jennifer Bray.

In lieu of flowers, Debby’s family would like for donations to be made to Mended Little Hearts at mendedlittlehearts.gnosishosting.net/Portal/NewDonation or to Autism Awareness at: <https://secure4.everydayhero.com.au/event/autismawarenessdonate/donate>.

A celebration of Debby’s life will be 12:00 P.M. Saturday, September 10, 2016 at Timothy Baptist Church with Jason Snyder officiating. Honorary pallbearers will be Steve Paris, Ryan Brantley, Jamie Rappe, Ken Wright, Cody Ross, Jason Jones, Jack Brantley, J.C. Wallace, John Greb, Alan Ross, Steve James, Gary Jones, and Jay Stroble.

Debby and I were close friends in jr high school. I remember the times we went to the Kingston's house and visited. Those are the days when people actually went out of their way to communicate and show one--on-one love for each another..Debby and I lost track over the years but I NEVER forgot her and what she was about. She was always laughing and was one of the kindest people I ever had the pleasure of being friends with.. We have a lot of memories which I will cherish forever. I love you Deb... and we will see each other again one day..

“ Her bravery throughout her life but especially in the last year is both awe-inspiring and inspirational. She lived for her children, grandchildren and her brother Phil. Her presence is among the first in my memory due to our mothers' being lifelong friends who were inseparable. Our thoughts and prayers are with Phil and her children, her true legacy.

“ I will always remember Debby as one of my dearest and sweetest friends. She was always a ray of sunshine coming into a room and though we haven't seen a lot of each other in the past few years, I will always remember how much fun she was and also what a dear friend she was to me. I'm very sorry for your loss and mine. I will always remember and love her. Clara Meeks

“ I remember playing at Grandma Paynes with Debby and Matt. In high school, Debby was not pretentious but kind and loving to me even though I was not in the sorority or the "in-crowd". She always laughed and was so fun!! When Aunt Georgia turned 80, I tried to get her to say I was her favorite. She kept telling me "No, it is Deby"!!!

Dear family, I pray God comfort you in your great and too early loss. The Hogans will be praying for you.

“ Miss Debby...

Thank you so much for the silly shenanigans, making me laugh until I cried, wisdom, and unconditional love. You are definitely one in a million. Heaven has gained a very special angel. I'll always remember that contagious laugh and smile which you shared quite often with family, friends, and probably even strangers...cause that's just how the BAILBONDS lady rolled! :)

I love you and I'll miss you, but we'll see each other again.

“ Debby, This is Clinton Ott I just want to say thank you for being there for me when I was growing up and into my 30s you still stayed close to me when you didn't have too. I love you so much my heart can't find the words. If we were all half as kind and selfless as you were we could all live in peace. Thank you for all the talks and helping us all grow. Enjoy your eternal life I pray I can get there as you have done. Love you and you'll always be in my heart.
