“ You will always be in my heart and memories as my youth pastor growing up. You were always there to help, lend a shoulder to cry on, or provide a laugh when the world felt cold and uncaring. Your words of support and compassion were an inspiration, and your sense of humor was a blessing to a young girl living in a dark world, who always tried to hide her tears with a fake smile. You made the smile real, and made me laugh when I wanted to give up on everything. Thank you.
