“ I had so many good memories with Donna. We became friends when we were both 18 years old. I remember her Dad used to give us a hard time before we would go out on the weekends, I thought it was funny. Donna was a lot of fun to be around and we definitely had some good times, I wish I would of reached out to her in the last several years cause I would want her to know that she did mean something to me. She was a story teller just like my Dad and I will miss her. To her Children I am very sorry for your loss, your Mother loved you dearly.

Love,
Rhonda McCoy
