“ I can remember taking my momma and aunt DOT fishing just us girl's. Don't let aunt DOT get a fish on cause it was funny to watch her reel it in. Even my momma would be laughing. When aunt DOT get done she would act like she was sweating and rub her forehead. 😊 😊 on her birthday it was dress up time. The family would enjoy the fun and the laughter we all had with her. I'm going to miss her. But know that she n the family are dancing in heaven together now. I love you ain't DOT rip.

“ I remember going to Aunt Jennies and I'd say Hey where's Aunt Dot? Someone go get her. They did and did we have a great time. She was always laughing, smiling, hugging. Loved how she'd light up the room with her antics. I grew up with her in mind. Love you Dot.

Quincey Patten her niece in Arizona - August 24, 2021 at 02:49 AM

I remember her always joking around. The funniest memory I had was when Mom was pregnant with Angie before we came to Arizona. Aunt Dot was driving us to the store in her little Ford Pinto ,I think. Aunt Dot turned a sharp left on mom's passenger door swung open and there was no front seat belt. So Aunt Dot quick reflexes reached out to catch mom from leaning out the door grabbed her boob. 😊 The look on both of their faces is priceless. We all laughed about it. Such a sweet lady. Rest in peace . Love you Aunt Dot enjoy your wings. You earned them
