“ Dorothy was my mother-in-law for eight years. We share Erica, my daughter and her grand-daughter. Even though her son, DeWayne, and I were no longer married, she stayed in my life as one of my moms. We spoke on the phone for years and I enjoyed hearing about her life and her family. She loved her family so much. Erica and I were privileged to visit her last year in Muskogee. It was wonderful seeing her in person after so many years! I'll miss her.
