“ I love you and miss you so much Grandma. You have been gone for over 2 months now, but there isn't a day goes by that I don't think of you. I wish I could hear the words "oh fiddle!" again. :) You were a huge part of this family and things are just not the same without you around. Mom had a rough day today. She was sad and missing you a lot. Kylie and Sophie are growing up way too fast! Sophie is wearing make-up and acting like she's a teenager now (lord help me). Kylie is ready to start 4th grade in a few weeks. So much has changed in two months...scary to think what another year will be like! I wish you were still here to see them grow up. Thank you for always being there for me...I am so glad I got to be with you and hold your hand while you took your last breath in this world and began your new eternal life. I always told you that I would not leave you alone and I kept my word! Don't forget....you promised to to be my guardian angel until I can join you! I expect you to be watching and waiting for me to join you one day....when the good Lord is ready for me! I bet it is really beautiful and I can't wait! I love you!!!!
