“ My baby brother, my family’s miracle child. The child my mom longed for and trusted God for. While waiting for him to make his appearance our mom had a stroke, she held on, kept praying and my brother was born. I remember him getting sick when he was around 2 years, he had a 103 or so temp just laying in my mom’s arm listlessly, on the way to the dr. Out of nowhere, Duane pops up and yells boo! Then just sinks back into our moms arms. He never wanted anyone to worry about him, but he worried and cared about everyone. His trust in the Lord started early when he was around four, we all got the mumps. My sister and I look like we had chipmunk faces for around a month, Duane who is the late developer and his mumps dropped into his lower extremities and twisted and turned his feet and legs. For several months he couldn’t stand on the bottom of his feet his legs and feet were so twisted. Right before this started he had gotten a pair of cowboy boots. He loved them and he wanted to wear them to Easter Sunday church. So we had our pastor come over and pray for him, then he wore his boots to church on Easter Sunday. Duane was acquainted with sorrow but he was also acquainted with joy. He loved his family and his children where everything. And I know that God gave me the best brother in the world, Our miracle child, My hero friend, my prayer warrior. I can almost hear you guys singing I love you Duane.

“ Growing up my Dad this 1969 Chevy Nova at a young age I was always asking him to drive. So one day he gave in he stop the car in the middle of the road and told me you get three chance if you can get going you can drive the first try I killed it he just laughed the second try I frog hopped it and killed it he just giggled I ask does it matter how I get going he said no if you get going you get to drive so started the car once more I revved it a few times I looked at him smiled floored it and dump the clutch we were ditch from ditch throwing gravel everywhere but I got it going he just grin ear to ear and said well I guess you get to drive it

“ So many good memories to even begin to post. We all shared our faith together in the church. We fellowshipped, feasted, sang, played music, and laughed together! Duane could take an old song and change the words to worship Christ, we surely all remember "Heaven By Morning", then those he wrote himself like, "Shout For the Lord Has Given You This City"! Duane went through a lot on this side of life but today, "All Is Well". I Love his family and am praying for the peace that surpasses our understanding and that can only come from God!
