“ I was both shocked and saddened to hear about David's passing. I agree whole heartedly with the statement that he had a huge heart and gave of himself unconditionally. During the time he worked with us at the school, he always went that extra mile in helping us. Even after he left, he would show up unexpectedly with a pan of homemade biscuits and sausage. I will miss his wave and smile as we would pass on the highway. Please know that the Isbell family is in my thoughts and prayers.
