

Elsie Marie Hull

May 7, 1929 - January 20, 2026

Elsie Marie Hull was born May 7, 1929 to Dewey and Mae Thomas in Haskell, Oklahoma. She passed away peacefully January 20, 2026 at Baptist Village in Broken Arrow at age 96.

Elsie married the love of her life, Jesse Hull, June 17, 1950 and they made Muskogee their home. Elsie loved her life as a wife and mother to their son, James Dewey Hull. Jesse and James Dewey were her greatest treasures in life. She was a beloved sister and loved sharing the stories about special shopping days with her sisters, Sunday dinners in Porter (her pies were always requested and quite a hit), and family camping trips on the Illinois River. Elsie had a special bond with her numerous nieces and nephews and they lovingly referred to her as Aunt Oss.

Elsie was a devoted member of Calvary Baptist Church in Muskogee for many years. She was especially fond of the old hymns they sang each service. She considered the women in her Sunday School class as her bonus sisters. She was preceded in death by her husband, Jesse James Hull; her son, James Dewey Hull; her parents, Dewey and Mae Thomas; her brothers, Carrel Thomas, Edward Dee Thomas, Arnold (Bub) Thomas; her sisters Naoma McLemore, Mildred Tackett, and Erma Peters.

Left to cherish her memory are her sister and brother-in-law, Shirley and Sid Bowers, of Broken Arrow; sister, Oma Thomas, of Louisburg, Kansas; daughter-in-law, Kennie Hull, of Owasso; and numerous nieces and nephews. Elsie's life will be remembered Friday, January 30, 2026, at 11:00 am at Haskell Cemetery.
