“ I don't guess I ever really thought about how old Francis was. She was just a part of my church life and there for as long as I could remember. Her Moma and my Moma both worked in the nursery fulltime. We were all there everytime the doors were open. When Mrs. Adcock reitred from the nursery at the church and they moved to Muskogee I did not see her often. I do remember going to the VA Hospital with Daddy one time and she was working there in the laundry. She was the same as always. Happy and smiling. She was so proud that she had a job and the patients and staff just loved her. She will be missed. Such a pure and gentle soul. I know that her Mom was waiting at Heaven's gates with open arms for her. I know Francis loved the Lord. She talked about Him freely and shared His love with everyone she met. Our loss is her gain and one day I will see her again!

“ I went to Church with Francis in Wainwright and her toothless smile could brighten any room. She was such a joy to be around. She always called me 'her girl' and after I moved to Texas, she was always the first person I wanted to see Sunday morning when I visited home. She touched me deeply and she will be missed. “ I knew Francis for many years at the VAMC there in Muskogee; she was a wonderful person who loved everyone. What a character she was, and such a hard worker. My prayers are with her family at this time.

“ To Francis' family: I feel good having known, worked with, and gone to church with Francis. She was a very special person and i counted her among my friends. As my sister-in Christ I know that one day I will see her again. My deepest sympathy to each of you. God Bless , with Love, Beverly and David Newton
