“ My cousin, Gary Webb, son of my Uncle Jack, came many summers with this dad and brother, Terry, to visit us. I remember those days with delight as the four of us (including my younger sister Kathy) were taken to Six Flags over Texas by our Uncle Jack.

Gary and I were kindred spirits and enjoyed our fun together as the older, "wiser" cousins; we were the leaders and loved taking the younger ones all over the amusement park.

I found Gary again recently after many years and am very happy to have gotten re-aquainted. He was a very special, gentle man and I will miss him!

Love, Char
