

Geneva Mae Foster

August 6, 1922 - May 1, 2013

On Wednesday, May 1, 2013, God called His daughter, Geneva Mae Foster, home. Born August 6, 1922 in Cherokee County, to Olly and Mary Sells, Geneva was the eighth of ten children. She grew up in the midst of a loving family.

Geneva met and fell in love with George W. Foster, a widower, and his four young children, GeorgeAnne, Donald, Billy, and John. Married in Pryor on February 26, 1940, George, Geneva, and the children lived near Hulbert. God blessed them with three more children, Hellen, Robert (Butch), and Patsy. Geneva's life was filled with loving her Lord, her family, and others. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend to many. She enjoyed going to church, reading her Bible, listening to gospel singing, cooking, cleaning, quilting, and traveling.

Geneva was preceded in death by her parents, Olly and Mary Sells; her husband, George W.; five children, GeorgeAnne Dutton, Donald Foster, Billy Foster, John David Foster, Robert (Butch) Foster; and one granddaughter, Lisa Slape Richardson; as well as four brothers and four sisters.

She is survived by her two daughters, Hellen Miles of Muskogee, Patsy Slape and husband, Larry of Hulbert; one sister, Faye Dorris and husband, Ralph of Broken Arrow; twelve grandchildren; many great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; nieces and nephews; and a host of other loved ones.

“ *To my Aunt DeeDee's loving family. Although she was my great aunt I always called her "Aunt DeeDee". I remember going to her house with my Granny when I was a little girl (Eileen Sells was my grandmother, I am Ina's oldest daughter.) She was always so kind, gentle and loving to me and I cherish those memories of her. I am sorry I won't be able to come to the services as I am at work today and there was no time to put in for time off. I will be there in spirit and all of you are in my prayers.
Sincerely, Pam Cook-Denwalt*
