“ I will always remember George as a good brother-in-law. I especially remember when my mother Lena Primeaux was in her last months and I was doing my part of her caregiving while my sisters worked that he was so helpful when I needed someone to lift her into her bed. He would drop everything and come when I called. I thank you, George, for being there when she and I needed you.

I also am thankful for my two nephews Louis and Anthony who will miss their father. It is hard to lose a parent but I know they have the character to handle this setback. I hold you close in my heart, in my prayers, and in my thoughts. Uncle George, Rob, Rich, and Becky send their prayers for and thought to you both. Geneva, I know that you will be the rock that your sons can lean on, We love the three of you very much.

George, safe journey home. God be with you.
