“ There are too many memories of George. George and Carol lived next door to us while I was growing up. They were my second parents. I remember I decided to take a different bus one day to meet up with a friend across the highway. George saw me walking away from my bus stop and let me get a ways down the road. He pulled up in his truck and asked me if I was lost. He said to get in and he would take me to my bus stop. He just smiled and said don't be late to school. He waited till I got on the bus then he left. He was a good neighbor. George helped my dad build his garage. Carol spent alot of time with mom. Mom would cut her hair and George and Dad said they sounded like a couple of hens cackling. Great memories of days gone by. Leslie and Donald, I am sorry for the loss of both your parents. I live at Tenkiller Lake and didn't hear until today of his passing. Would love to see you sometime. May God comfort you during your loss.
