“ I will miss you, Uncle Butch. After all these years, I never knew your given name was George. I'm praying for your family, your boys and your grandchildren. You were always so sweet to me. I remember when you put me and my sisters on our first horse, Pokey. I think Dusty was old enough to remember but Hollie might have been too young. There are a lot of things we want to say to someone when they are gone. My prayer is this, "Lord, give our family peace as you welcome Uncle Butch unto your Heavenly kingdom. Please show us favor and help us remember that we don't always have tomorrow. We should say, or do the things we need to now. Help us to have forgiveness in our hearts for others and to shine like Your light so that others may find their way. Amen" God bless you, guys. *hugs* Amber (Berry) Brown
