“ A memory of Gilbert Beagle....I called him "Old man", and he loved it. His sense of humor was awesome. I can't think of just 1 favorite memory. I see him when he and Linda married, when Richard and then Edna were born (both named after my parents, what an honor). I see him dressing both kids up and bringing them to church every time the doors were open. I see him cheering Edna on when she played softball, watching Richard play the guitar. He was so proud of his kids. He would take my son, Daniel and Edna all over town. He spoiled them rotten. I see him sitting at the table, talking with my dad for hours at a time, preaching at each other. They were a hoot! As he got older, he was just as ornery, just as loveable, still loved to put a smile on your face. We missed the last 20 yrs of his life, but the memories of all the stories he told are still in my heart. He will be missed, but we'll see him when we all get to heaven and he lives on in Edna and Richard. Bye for now, Old man. I love you!

I remember him taking you two to church often at Uncle Richards.
