She was a loving mother of 8 children, four boys and four girls. There was nothing she loved more than her family. She also loved feeding and rescuing any animal in need and feeding the birds. She was kind, generous, and always had a way of making anyone she met feel welcome.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Gladys Knott; two sons, Charles Tinney and Teasie Tinney; and a great-grandson, Trashawn White.

Although she may be gone her life will shine as a beacon of light and a symbol of love in our family forever.
